Flat Earth Imports Announces Exclusivity Agreement with Italian Fine Linens Manufacturer Tessitura Pardi S.r.l.
Bozeman, Montana

Flat Earth Imports, an import and wholesale company based in Bozeman, Montana, is pleased to announce it is now the exclusive distributor for Italian textile and product manufacturer Tessitura Pardi in the United States. While Flat Earth Imports already features Tessitura Pardi in its family of high quality, Italian artisan brands, the new exclusivity agreement broadens and deepens opportunities in the U.S. market for both companies, and will generate more product options for resellers.

Tessitura Pardi's fine linens have been synonymous with Italian style since 1949. Three generations of artisans have practiced their calling at Tessitura Pardi, transforming textiles with their talents. The only weaving mill of its kind in Umbria, this small, family-run business uses 42 shuttle-power Jacquard looms and precious fibers to create some of the finest fabrics and heirloom-quality linens in the world.

Specializing in 100% linen, 100% cotton and refined linen-cotton blends, Tessitura Pardi's elegant offerings are a carefully crafted harmony of art, nature, tradition, culture and quality. Their distinctive guest towels with hand-knotted fringes, sumptuous bed linens and impeccably hemstitched napkins and placemats are refrains of exactly these concepts. With historically rich designs and sophisticated colors that draw from many sources, their products complement a variety of home décor styles.

"We are privileged to bring such beautiful and storied products to market in the United States, primarily targeting an audience of independent retailers and trade professionals," said Kitch Walker, President of Flat Earth Imports. "We have enjoyed getting to know the Pardi family over the years and building the relationship that engendered this exclusivity agreement."

Tessitura Pardi products are renowned in Italy, and throughout Europe. Retailers and trade professionals in the United States interested in the Tessitura Pardi brand should visit www.FlatEarthImports.com or call (USA) toll free +1 877.545.1201 to learn more about how to purchase these fine products.
